Survivor Reception

A Reception will be held on 27 October in honor of those survivors who take time to share their experiences with us so that future responses can be improved. The reception will be held at the Museum of London from 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM. The reception is sponsored by BMS Global and is open to all registered participants.

The Foundation is sincerely grateful to this year's sponsors who have help make this conference possible through their generous support.
